

County of San Bernardino

Services for Transitional Age Youth (TAY)/ Emancipated Foster Care Youth

Department/Contact	Program/Services	Population/Criteria	Funding
Department of Behavioral Health For information please contact Cheryl Placide at (909) 387-7211	Transitional Age Youth (TAY) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Skill Development with life domains of educational, employment, housing, social and emotional success. • Referrals to resources • Transportation • Recreational Activities • Peer Mentoring and Counseling 	Youth ages 16-25 under 200% of the Federal Poverty Level with a diagnosable mental illness.	Mental Health Services Act Proposition 63
Department of Workforce Development For information please contact Gary Dakan at (909) 387-9877	Services to assist youth in obtaining one or more of the following goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Education Certificate • Vocational Certificate • Employability Skills • Entry into employment • Entry into post secondary • Education 	Youth ages 17-25 Eligibility criteria are dependent upon specific grant requirements.	Federal Workforce Investment Act grants
Children's Fund Case Managers and/or Social Workers may call (909) 387-4048 for further information.	Daily Referral Program Safety net services and/or emergency needs not available through other resources.	At-risk youth age 16-25 currently involved with County and/or community social services agencies. County and/or community social services agencies may make referrals for needs not	100% Donor Funded

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • GED Assistance
County Superintendent of Schools For information contact (760) 947-0776	Youth Empowerment Services (YES) Center <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial Literacy • Supply Bank • Life Skills • Job Training Classes • GED Study Group • CASA Referrals • Computer Literacy • Victor Valley College Financial Aid • Parenting Classes • Sex Education • Self Esteem/Healthy Relationships • Anger Management • Alcohol/Substance Abuse Group 	Foster Youth ages 16-21 (includes youth who do not qualify for other County Foster Youth programs) Eligibility criteria are dependent upon specific grant requirements.	California Wellness Foundation Grant Desert Community United Way Grant
Department of Public Health For appointments and/or information regarding clinic locations and hours call 1-800-722-4777	Reproductive Health <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pregnancy testing • Birth control • Free condoms • Testing & treatment for STDs • HIV antibody testing • Reproductive health exams 	Reproductive Health services are available to males and females ages 12 and over. Free or low-cost clinical services, depending on income, are available to uninsured clients or those with Medi-Cal.	Clinical services are supported through fee-for-service reimbursements and ongoing State and Federal funding streams.
For information regarding community health education on reproductive health topics contact Kelly Hoffman at 909-386-8321	Community Health Education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Group presentations • Reproductive health workshops • Referrals to clinical services 	Community Health Education services are available to all community groups.	Community Health Education services are provided through various grants.

For information regarding AFLP call (909) 388-5600 or 1-800-227-3034	Adolescent Family Life Program (AFLP) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case management • Supportive services to enhance health, educational potential, economic opportunity, and self-sufficiency 	Pregnant and/or female parenting teens must be under 18 years of age, but can stay in the program up to age 20 years. AFLP is voluntary for teens who are not receiving State aid. Teens can receive Medi-CAL. Male partners are also eligible if they are under 21 years of age and actively involved in the lives of their children.	Federal and State Funding
For information regarding AFLP Collaboration call the Toll-free Perinatal Referral Line 1-800-227-3034	AFLP Collaboration With The Juvenile Detention And Assessment Centers Detention-based services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enrollment of pregnant teens • Needs identification • Health education, including prenatal classes. Home-based services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health education follow-up • Family-centered care plans • Referrals to relevant support services. 	Pregnant teens incarcerated in the West, Central and Adelanto Juvenile Detention and Assessment Centers and those who are released to addresses within the County of San Bernardino	Probation Funding
For information regarding MIST call the Toll-free Perinatal Referral Line 1-800-227-3034	Mother Infant Support Team (MIST) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information • Education • Referrals 	Incarcerated pregnant women	Federal and State Funding
For more information contact Loretta Calloway at (760) 956-4426	School Health: Pregnant Minor Program	Pregnant teens at select high schools	School District Funding

	Nurses perform assessments and make referrals on pregnant teens.
For more information call (909) 388-5600 or 1-800-227-3034	Cal-Learn Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case management • Supportive services • Financial incentives and disincentives to encourage teens/preteens to stay in school and obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent. 	Cal-Learn is a mandatory program for pregnant/parenting teens under age 19 who receive TANF and have not obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent. Cal-Learn participants enrolled in school full time may voluntarily stay in Cal-Learn up to their 20 th birthday , based on eligibility.	TAD Funding
For more information call the BIH Referral Lines: Primary referral line: 909-388-5761 Secondary referral line: Toll-free Perinatal Referral Line 1-800-227-3034	Black Infant Health (BIH) Public Health home visitation care coordination services including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Referral • Information • Follow-up tracking • Outreach services 	All African-American pregnant or parenting women with care coordination services during the first trimester of their pregnancy and until the baby is twelve months of age.	Federal and State Funding
For more information call the Toll-free Perinatal Referral Line 1-800-227-3034	Perinatal Care Guidance (PCG) Telephone screening and referral to community resource information.	All women of childbearing age in San Bernardino County and their children.	Federal and State Funding
For more information call the Toll-free Perinatal Referral Line 1-800-227-3034	Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Counseling and other grief interventions • Referrals and follow-up • Community education • Regular and on-going training 	Services are offered to the general public, families experiencing a presumed SIDS loss, professionals and first responders to possible SIDS deaths	Federal and State Funding